Good morning/afternoon/evening. My name is _____ from Market Research UK Limited. We have been commissioned by the East Midlands Observatory to carry out a major survey in communities throughout the East Midlands region. The survey is about matters that affect how you live, including work, education, skill, health and your community. Your home has been selected at random for the survey. You should have received a letter (SHOW COPY) to advise you of this and to explain the purpose of the survey. Your views are very important, and I wonder if I can please take some of your time to ask you some questions? The survey is completely confidential.

INTERVIEWER INSTRUCTION: ENSURE RESPONDENT IS BETWEEN 16 & 74 YEARS OF AGE.

This interview has been conducted within the Code of Conduct of the Market Research Society.

SECTION H: PARTICIPATION IN TRAINING AND LEARNING

INTERVIEWER READ OUT: I would now like to ask a few detailed questions about training and learning. These questions are for everyone to answer whether in employment or not although, some 'parts' of the questions may be specific to a job. In thinking particularly about learning can I say that learning covers anything to develop new or existing skills and knowledge. It can involve both learning for your own personal interest and in relation to your work or work that you want to do. Such learning may or may not lead to a qualification.

The following questions relate to any learning that you may have done even if it has not been finished. They do not relate to full time education at school.

Q40 SHOW CARD 13. But first can I check how you would rate the following...

ROUTE

		Excellent	Good	Moderate	Poor	No Opinion N/A
A	How would you rate your reading skills in English needed in daily life?	1	2	3	4	5	(195)	v141
